Subject: - Regarding news item captioned 'Delhi Police asks officials to tighten grip on stunt bikers on Shab-e-Barat, Holika Dahan', dated 6th March 2023.

Sir,

This is with reference to the above mentioned news item that appeared in your esteemed newspaper on 6.03.2023. Your attention is invited to headline as well as the contents of the news item. It has come to the notice of DCP/Special Branch that the contents of the news item are based on the secret report issued from her office. Sir this report is a secret document and strictly meant for internal circulation only and cannot be brought into public domain by way of any means. The information contained in the document is of sensitive nature and it is never advisable to make it public which your correspondent has done by way of publishing it as a news item. The unauthorized use of official document classified as secret is punishable under Official Secret Act. This is an act of irresponsible journalism where a secret official document is published with mere intent of sensationalising readers.

Your are requested to kindly look into the matter and ensure that official classified documents are not reported in public.

Thanking You,

RANJAY ATRISHYA
Addl. Public Relations Officer-I,
Delhi Police.
