OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE: DELHI.

CIRCULAR

No.41/10

It has been observed that people while celebrating marriage and other parties tend to block both carriage ways of the roads and thus create serious traffic problems. Besides, the use of loud speakers and bands at high pitch cause noise pollution. This is a clear violation of directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court/High Court given from time to time and also the guide lines issued by PHQ in Standing Order No.309 of 2003 regarding regulation of procession/rallies issued vide PHQ's No.4062-4140/C&T(AC-IV)/PHQ dated 31/01/2003 and instructions issued vide No.56982-57081/C&T(AC-IV)/PHQ dated 10/08/2007, No.3024-3123/HAR(AC-I)/PHQ dated 03/12/2010 and Standing Order No.363 of 2009 regarding Menace of Noise Pollution issued vide PHQ's No.4901-5050/HAR/PHQ(AC-I) dated 20/04/2009.

The instructions passed by the Supreme Court/High Court and laid down in S.O. No.309 and 363 are once again reiterated for strict compliance. All District, Addl.CsP/DCsP are advised to direct their SDPOs, SHOs and Addl.C.P./PCR to instruct all I/C MPVs for meticulous compliance and strict action.
