Circular No. 24 /2023

Subject :- Regarding Extension of Responsibility for conducting e-aution of condemned general store articles, MT spares & vehicles/ articles seized u/s 66 DP Act to Districts/Units DCsP.

As per PHQ Order No. F.V/598/95/Pt.IV/23662/Admn.(I)/PHQ, dated 18.08.2005 and S.O. No. P&L/07/2022, the responsibility of conducting e-auction of condemned general store articles, MT spares and vehicles/articles seized under section 66 D.P. Act has been assigned to DCP/P&L.

As per the existing practice, Condemnation Committees at District/Unit level carry out the necessary paperwork to determine what goods/articles are to be condemned and thereafter, requests are sent to DCP/P&L for the e-auction formalities.

As has been observed, this practice of centralized e-auction results in delays and more often than not, the e-auctions do not yield the desired results.

In order to streamline the process with the objective of speedy conduct of e-auction for the purpose of timely disposal of condemned goods/articles, the duty presently assigned exclusively to DCP/P&L is hereby further assigned to all concerned DCsP of Districts/Units with immediate effect.

All DCsP Districts & Units shall strictly adhere to the norms of e-auction presently being followed by DCP/P&L. Every condemnation proceeding being carried out by District/Unit shall be attended by either Dy. F.A. or one of the AAO of PHQ by fixing a date in the last week of every month by mutual convenience.

For the purpose of giving effect to this Circular, DCP/P&L shall circulate guidelines and checklist to be meticulously followed by Districts/Units DCsP and also, collect quarterly reports from all concerned to be put up for perusal of the undersigned through Spl. CP/P&FD.
