DWARKA DISTRICT ORGANISES INTENSIVE COMMUNITY POLICING CAMPAIGN ON WOMEN AND CHILD SAFETY; STUDENTS SENSITISED THROUGH AWARENESS PROGRAMMES AND SELF-DEFENCE TRAINING.

- AWARENESS PROGRAMMES ON WOMEN'S SAFETY, GOOD TOUCH–BAD TOUCH AND PROVISIONS OF THE POCSO ACT CONDUCTED IN SCHOOLS.
- AROUND 120 GIRL STUDENTS TRAINED IN BASIC SELF-DEFENCE TECHNIQUES AT NEW MODERN GREEN VALLEY SCHOOL, POCHANPUR.
- APPROXIMATELY 350 GIRLS SENSITISED ABOUT CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE PREVENTION AND REPORTING MECHANISMS AT SHANTI GYAN SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL, CHHAWLA.

Under the leadership of Sh. Kushal Pal Singh, IPS, DCP/Dwarka District, Dwarka District Police has undertaken an intensive and comprehensive media and community outreach campaign on Women and Child Safety, in compliance with the directions issued by PHQ, Delhi.

The initiative aims to create a safer, more informed and empowered society through awareness, education and active community participation.

As part of this initiative, Dwarka District is focusing on sensitising women and children about their legal rights, personal safety, preventive measures and available support mechanisms. Special emphasis is being laid on awareness regarding legal provisions under BNS and other special laws, including the POCSO Act, 2012, as well as various women safety initiatives of Delhi Police, such as Shashakti (Self-Defence Training), Shishtachar Squad, Nazuk and Nirbhik. Awareness about the Women Helpline and its services is also being promoted to encourage timely reporting and seeking of police assistance.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH AND AWARENESS ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED:-

1. INTERACTION WITH STUDENTS AT SHANTI GYAN SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL, CHHAWLA:-

Women police personnel of Dwarka District interacted with students at Shanti Gyan Senior Secondary School, Chhawla. During the interaction, students were sensitised about women's safety, personal security, the concepts of Good Touch and Bad Touch, and the importance of immediately reporting any uncomfortable or suspicious incident to their parents, teachers or the police. The students were also encouraged to seek police assistance whenever required.

2. SELF-DEFENCE TRAINING AT NEW MODERN GREEN VALLEY SCHOOL, POCHANPUR, DWARKA:-

A self-defence training session was organised by Dwarka District Police for girl students at New Modern Green Valley School, Pochanpur, Dwarka. The initiative aimed at empowering young girls by imparting basic self-protection techniques and enhancing their confidence to deal with emergencies or threatening situations.

Around 120 girl students actively participated and received practical training in simple and effective self-defence techniques.

3. AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON POCSO ACT, 2012, AT SHANTI GYAN SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL, CHHAWLA:-

An awareness programme on the POCSO Act, 2012, was conducted for girl students at Shanti Gyan Senior Secondary School, Chhawla, under the jurisdiction of PS Chhawla.

During the programme, approximately 350 girls were sensitised about Good Touch and Bad Touch, personal safety, prevention of child sexual abuse and the importance of reporting any uncomfortable, inappropriate or unsafe incident to their parents, teachers or the police. The students were also made aware of the importance of speaking up without fear or hesitation.

Through these community policing initiatives, Dwarka District Police is making continuous efforts to bridge the gap between police and the public, particularly young girls and children, by promoting awareness, confidence and trust.
