Particulars of organization, functions and duties

[Section 4(1)(b)(i)]

1 Aims and objectives of the organization:-

The purpose of Delhi Police is to uphold the law fairly and firmly; to prevent crime; to pursue and bring to justice those who break the law; to keep the peace in partnership with the community; to protect, help and reassure the people.

2. Mission / Vision :-

To deliver highest standard of progressive innovative, sensitive and responsive policing services in Delhi. To ensure that Delhi and National Capital is a safe place to live, visit and do business.

3. Brief History and background for its establishment :-

The concept of policing in Delhi is as old as the history of Delhi itself. Life being relatively more complex and delicate, the rulers of Delhi in one or the other form always kept a force to regulate its affairs and preserve its law and order. The force was ordinarily lodged in a Fort (kot) under an officer called 'Kotpal' which later on came to be called 'Kotwal'. To make the movements on highway safe something like the present police post seem to have been set up there at some strategic points. These were called 'Sthanas' which later on called 'Thanas'. The Kotwal was the Head of the Police System. He was a direct appointee of the King. The Kotwal was supposed to make the city crime free and maintain the law and order. The Kotwal and his system of policing continued to remain in place during medieval period. The first Kotwal of Delhi(1237) was Malikul Umara Faqrudin and the last Kotwal of Delhi was as Sh. Gangadhar Nehru (1857). After the First War of Independence, the British Monarch took over British India under his direct control and police was also became the subject of the British Administration. The police was re-constituted under the Police Act, 1861 which continues to be the guiding law in India even today. The first major re-organization of the force took place in 1946. On 16th Feb 1948, the Delhi Police was placed under the charge of an IGP exclusively responsible for maintenance of law and order in the city. In 1978 the Delhi Police Act was passed and the Commissioner of Police system was introduced w.e.f. 1.7.1978. Since then, the Commissioner of Police, Delhi has been heading the Delhi Police.

4. Structure of the department:-

The Headquarters of the Delhi Police is located at Jai Singh Road, New Delhi - 110001. Delhi Police is headed by Commissioner of Police, who is an IPS Officer of Director General Rank. There are 18 Special Commissioners of Police, 22 Joint Commissioners of Police, 13 Addl.
