BRIEF: -

In a continued drive against unlawful activities, the Special Staff of East District Police successfully busted an illegal staking/gambling activity being carried out at a public place in the Kalyanpuri area. Acting on specific intelligence, the police apprehended three persons red-handed while indulging in illegal gambling. Cash stake money and betting material were recovered from their possession.

INCIDENT & INVESTIGATION: -

In view of the ongoing special drive against crime and criminals, a dedicated team comprising HC Vichitre Kumar, HC Naresh, and HC Vinit of the Special Staff, East District, led by Insp. Jitendra Malik and working under the supervision of Sh. Sanjay Singh Addl. DCP/Operations, was constituted.

On 09.01.2026, HC Vichitre Kumar of Special Staff, East District, received specific secret information regarding illegal staking/gambling being conducted near Trilokpuri Park, in front of Block-23, near a public shauchalaya, within the jurisdiction of Police Station Kalyanpuri. After discreet verification of the information, the team promptly reached the spot and conducted a raid. During the operation, three persons were found actively involved in illegal staking activities and were apprehended on the spot. Upon thorough checking, a total cash amount of Rs. 12,090/-, and other gambling-related material were recovered from the accused persons. Accordingly, a case FIR No. 0014/2026 U/s 12/9/55 Gambling Act, 1955 was registered at PS Kalyanpuri. Further investigation is in progress.
