Subject:- Rejoinder of news item i.e 'Turf-wary policemen almost let off murderer

Sir,

Apropos the captioned news item, which has appeared in your newspaper on 28.8.2012. The headline and contents of the same are contrary to the facts of the matter.

The incident mentioned in the news item pertains to the case FIR No.219/2012 u/s 302 IPC P.S. Sagar Pur. Facts of the case are that on 27.8.2012 at 1.10 PM, one Navneet Kumar r/o Mohalla Farrakhan Kurawali, District Main Puri, U.P. approached the Duty Officer HC Jagdish of P.S. Dabri and disclosed that he had murdered his sister Madhukanta Gupta w/o Ramesh Chand Gupta r/o RZD-12A, Dabri Extn. as he was under immense strain due to domestic tensions created by his sister. The statement of Navneet Kumar was duly recorded by HC Jagdish (Duty Officer of P.S. Dabri) in Daily diary and SHO/Dabri was informed accordingly. The matter was entrusted to Inspr. Parveen who rushed to the spot along with the accused, Navneet Kumar. The accused led the police party at the spot i.e. RZD-12A, Dabri Extn., which was in the jurisdiction of P.S. Sagar Pur. Subsequently, the concerned Police Station was informed. On receipt of the information, Inspector Renu Sharma of P.S. Sagar Pur arrived at the spot and took up the matter. Subsequently, the above mentioned case was registered at P.S. Sagar Pur.

In view of the gravity and sensitivity of the matter, it will be appreciated if the concerned correspondent is suitably advised to exercise restraint from filing such unverified/unconfirmed news-items.

In view of the above stated facts, it is requested that this rejoinder may be published in order to put the matter in proper perspective with the same prominence as the above referred news item to set the record right.

Yours faithfully,
