Subject : Rejoinder of news items i.e. "One killed in Outer Delhi encounter" & "Two robbery cases solved, man held."

Sir,

Apropos the above captioned news items which have been published in your esteemed newspaper today i.e. 21-3-2013. The contents of the news items are incorrect and misleading.

In the news item captioned "One killed in Outer Delhi encounter", it has been reported that Addl. C.P./Crime has said that when one police vehicle flagged down the criminals, Rakesh and Vineet fired at Police. It is clarified that no such statement was made by Addl. C.P./Crime. It is further clarified that no such person namely Vineet was either present in the accused vehicle or apprehended by police.

In another news items captioned "Two robbery cases solved, man held", it has been reported that with the arrest of accused, two cases of robbery including the one at Noida Expressway in which a South African woman was robbed of Rs. 1.15 crore, have been solved, Police said. It is clarified that robbery of Rs. 1.15 crore was committed on Noida Expressway on 12/03/13 where a jeweller's staff was targeted. It is clearly mentioned in the press release that another case of snatching of March 2012 of P.S. Barakhamba Road has been worked out. In this case, the mobile phone snatched from the victim (a South African woman) has been recovered. Copy of the Press release is enclosed.

In view of the above stated facts, it is requested that a rejoinder may kindly be published with the same prominence in your daily to set the record straight. Misreporting may lead to legal issues later on and the defence/accused is likely to take advantage of such published items. Therefore, you may like to caution the concerned reporter accordingly.

Yours faithfully,

(RAVINDRA SINGH YADAV)IPS
