Subject:- Clarification regarding news caption : "Cop House allotment on radar" - mention of recruitment – regarding.

Sir,

Kindly refer to the news item captioned above (Copy enclosed), which appeared on page No. 9 of your news paper, i.e., Sunday Times of India (Times City, Dance of Democracy), New Delhi on December 1, 2013, by correspondent Sh. Raj Shekhar. Para 1 of the news item states as under:-

"After a scam in recruitment of constables rocked the Delhi Police establishment, there seems to be more trouble brewing elsewhere. Something is amiss in the allotment of quarters to the personnel…."

The above mentioned news item with regard to the scam in recruitment of Constables is totally misleading, false, without any substance and portrays a negative picture of recruitment process of Delhi Police, which we have relentlessly maintained to the highest standards comparable anywhere in the country and is totally transparent and impartial.

I do hope that necessary clarification will be issued by your news paper as soon as possible so that the image of Delhi Police recruitment process is not falsely tarnished in the eyes of public.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,

(RAJAN BHAGAT)
Public Relations officer
Delhi Police, Delhi.
