Subject: - Rejoinder to news item captioned 'Constable traces 63 children in 3 months – 16 of them were below eight years', dated 26th March 2021 in which the CP Delhi's designation has been mentioned wrongly.

Sir,

This is with reference to the above mentioned news item that appeared in your esteemed newspaper today on26.03.2021. Attention is invited to the last paragraph of the news item wherein the designation of Sh. S.N. Shrivastava, Commissioner of Police, Delhi has been mentioned as DCP S.N. Shrivastava.

The CP, Delhi is a position of high esteem and highest authority under whom Spl. CsP, Jt. CsP, AddlCsP and DCsP work in the organisation. Such careless and cautionless mention of the CP, Delhi as DCP is not only factually incorrect but also in bad taste and has hurt the sentiment of the force who work proudly under the leadership of CP, Delhi Sh. S.N. Shrivastava. An esteemed daily like 'The Hindu' is expected to refer correctly the designations of persons in highest positions.

In view of the above, it is requested that the correct designation of Sh. S.N. Shrivastava,Commissioner of Police, Delhi may kindly be published prominently as the news item.

Thanking You,

(CHINMOY BISWAL) IPS
Dy. Commissioner of Police
Public Relations Officer, Delhi Police.
